THE BOOKLET

There are many places left unexplored and under-developed in Chhukha & Phuntsholing. This booklet provides a glimpse into the beauties of nature and people of this less travelled land called Chhukha. It also contains ready-made itineraries for any travel organizer to adapt.

To truly unlock the hidden treasures of Chhukha, we shift our attention towards the tourism sector. By doing so, we showcase the rich cultural heritage, breathtaking landscapes, and unique experiences that these regions have to offer. This booklet serves the diverse attractions and opportunities available, enabling operators to curate unforgettable experiences for tourists. By harnessing the power of tourism, we not only boost the local economy but also foster sustainable development and preserve the natural and cultural heritage of these regions.

Phuntsholing

ITINERARY

Phuntsholing is a bustling border town in Bhutan, serving as the entry point for travelers arriving from India. While it may not be as well-known as some of Bhutan's other destinations, Phuntsholing offers a unique blend of cultures, vibrant markets, and a gateway to the enchanting Kingdom of Bhutan.

As the Bhutan Gate stands tall, it symbolizes not just a border but a bridge of cultural threads weaving India and Bhutan into a rich tapestry in Phuntsholing.

Pachu COMMUNITY TOURISM

A newly explored Camping and Riverside destination. It is operated by Community of Pachu village, Phuntsholing. It is located only about 6 kms from Phuntsholing town. At Pachu Community Tourism, you can experience the campsites and a diverse Southern Bhutanese culture infused with the Northerners. Here you can taste the delicious local food and local drink called 'Tongba'.

Milarepa Tower (MILA GUTHOG)

The temple or the tower is built to honour the great saint Milarepa and his great deeds and to propagate his teachings for the people of the entire world.

Riwa Duntik NYE

When you drive 10 minutes away from the heart of the town, on the banks of Amochu river, there lies a giant and most sacred Ney called Duntik Ney.

The Ney unfolds the story of the King Gawa having 2000 queens and the Prince Dhendup, who resided near Phuentsholing. The Prince was said to be very kindhearted that he donated all his Father's belongings to the common people, eventually emptied the wealth of the Royal casket. This agitated the King to send his Son and family into exile for twelve years at Riwa Duntin.

There, the Prince and his family survived on the wild foods collected by his wife from the nearby vegetation.

Rinchending Lhakhang (KHARBANDI GOENPA)

At an altitude of 400 meters on the hillock of the Phuentsholing town, you can sight a scenic Karbandi Lhakhang. The Lhakhang was set up amongst the garden of tropical plants and flowers by Royal Grandmother, Ashi Phuntsho Chodron in 1967. One can halt at the Lhakhang to see the life-size statues of Zhabdrung, Guru Rinpoche along with the paintings portraying scenes from the life of Lord Buddha. From this vantage point in the Lhakhang vicinity, you can enjoy the panorama of Phuentsholing town and the plains of West Bengal.

Toorsa TOWNSHIP VIEWPOINT

A spectacular view of the upcoming new township of Toorsa and development of Phuentsholing can be observed from Pachu Tar Viewpoint.

It is only about 15 minutes drive from Phuentsholing Town to reach the viewpoint

Gedu Itinerary

Nestled in the serene landscapes of Bhutan, Gedu stands as a hidden gem, inviting travelers to explore its natural beauty and cultural richness. This picturesque town offers a unique blend of outdoor adventures and spiritual experiences, making it a compelling destination for visitors seeking a peaceful escape.

Phaktshoding CYCLING & HIKING TRAIL

Phaktshoding Cycling Trail offers a unique experience for the cycling enthusiasts. The 4.5 kilometers trail meanders through the cool broad-leaved forest leading to the Phaktshoding Lake.

Even as you cycle through the pristine forests, you can hear the Rufous-necked hornbill swoop above your head.

Shawgayla Lake (ANTLER'S PASS)

Shawgayla Tsho (Antler's Pass Lake) is located to the east of Gedu at a distance of 33 kms. One of the beautiful stories ascribed to this lake is about a young cowherder girl and her coral necklace.

8 Stupas (CHORTENS)

The eight stupas (chortens) built by the voluntary labour of the ex-military personnel is a gift from His Majesty the Fifth King to the people of Chhukha. It is located right on the highway and there is a highway toilet also located nearby the chortens. The structures are magnificent and built to cleanse the defilements and for peace and safety of all highway travelers.

Jigmechu Itinerary

Jigmechu ECOTOURISM

Jigmechu Ecotourism is the signature tourism project of Chhukha District. The Ecotourism site was awarded the "Most Performing Community Tourism Destination" at the fifth Himalayan Hospitality and Tourism Awards held in West Bengal on September 27, 2023.

A 2020 assessment report identified Jigmechu as one of the most attractive natural sites with rich biodiversity coverage and huge potential to bring about economic development in the dzongkhag.

The site hosts over 300 bird species, including the endangered White-Bellied Heron, peacock, barking deer, rufous-necked hornbill, wreathed hornbill, and different types of butterfly species among others—due to the presence of peacocks, the place is also known as Majathang.

There are varied experiences—homestay experiences, birdwatching, tongba drinks, fly-fishing, river rafting and pilgrimage sites to visit.

Jigmechu Campsite

Jigmechu Ecotourism campsite was established in 2020 and is now operated by five members of Jigmechu community. It is located nearby the river, providing the best river breeze and view for the visitors.

JIGMECHU AMI NEY

The Ney is located less than 30 minutes walk from Jigmechu campsite. Jigmechu Ney is believed to be the amazing sacred site where Rigdzin Garab Dorji attended the Rainbow body. Rigdzin Garab Dorji was the first saint to receive direct transmission teaching from Vajrasattva.

Places around Jigmechu

Jigmechu Treehouse Campsite

One of the unique experiences in Jigmechu is lodging and spending time at the Tree House Campsite. They are unique structures built in harmony with nature to allow visitors to the campsite a unique getaway. It is operated by the eight members of the same Piping community.

LAND FORMATION

The southern foothills are abundant with mineral deposits and the process of weathering and denudation leads to unique land formations. It is the first of a kind land formation seen only around Jigmechu, on the way to Lhamo Yingkha.

Nature & Recreation around Jigmechu

BIRDING
FISHING

Tumdrak Ami Ney

Tumdrak Ney is called by diverse names by the locals: the most popular ones are Tumdra Ami Ney, Aum Kangchema Ney, Lhamo Ekajati Ney, Shiv Mandir, Mahakali Mandir, Mahakala Dham, Jainti Mahakal and Shachaphu Ney.

There are many fascinating features of the Ney that capture one's attention. It has 51 caves all carved out of the cliff-face of the hill. The amazing contents within the many accessible caves are left for you to explore and learn from the guides.

Bjabcho-Chapcha Itinerary

Bjabcho Hotstone Bath & Homestay

At Bjabcho village, just about 6 kms from national highway in Chhukha, you can experience the unique Bjabcho Hotstone Bath, which is known for its high therapeutic properties.

Contact Bjabcho Hotstone Bath Manager
@ +975 17413720 and Bjabcho Lhamo Homestay @ +97517933178

Chhukha Ngoedrup-Tse Dzong

His Holiness the 70th Je Khenpo (spiritual abbot) of Bhutan gave the name "Ngoedrup-Tse" literally meaning the "Pinnacle of blessing" to Chhukha Dzong and is one of the most beautiful Dzongs with contemporary architectural designs in the country. It was inaugurated in March 2012 by Her Majesty the Queen of Bhutan, Ashi Jetsun Pema Wangchuck. It is located in Tsimasham, less than an hour and half drive from Thimphu.

Dokhachu Goenpa

People from every walk of life flock to Dokhachu Goenpa on weekends and auspicious days to receive blessings of Lhamo Ekazati, the wish-fulfilling goddess. The wishes range from seeking prosperity and longevity to getting blessings for offspring. Of late, more people applying for overseas migration and student visas have crowded this temple to make their wishes for a good outcome, earning the reputation as a 'visa granting temple'!

Paga village & Homestay

At Paga village, you can experience the most authentic Homestay in Chhukha owned by the Mushroom Farming Youth Group consisting women. The place is only about 7 kms from Chhuzom, the confluence of Thimphu and Paro rivers.

Hotel Phuentsholing

Located at the Norgay Bridgepoint, Hotel Phuentsholing is ideal for those seeking quality time in peace and quiet. It is 200m away from the main town, providing our guests the opportunity to explore festivities and attractions of the local town while also allowing them a serene experience. The hotel is easily accessible by both the local bus and taxis with terminals situated nearby.

Filled with simple yet modernistic design elements, the hotel has 37 rooms, all of which utilize wood as a central theme. Hotel Phuentsholing is a place that values and attempts to blend culture with modernity. Its unique location allows it to do just that. The hotel is next to a local religious hotspot, a mani dungkhor (prayer wheel) where the elderly can be seen practicing Buddhism. This is set against the backdrop of Phuentsholing's busy streets contrasted by a view of the tropical forests.

At Hotel Phuentsholing, we believe in showing our guests all the different facets of life in Phuentsholing. On behalf of the team at Hotel Phuentsholing, we welcome you and hope you have a memorable stay with us.
